

Saved By Grace Alone!

Words: Philip Doddridge (1702-1751)

Grace! 'Tis a charm-ing sound, Har-mon-ious to the Grace taught my wand'-ring feet To tread the heaven-ly ear, Heaven with the e-cho shall re-sound And all the earth shall road, And new supp-lies each hour I meet, While press-ing up to hear. 'Twas grace that wrote my name

God. Grace taught my soul to pray,

In life's e-ter-nal book; 'Twas grace that gave me to the Lamb
And made my eyes o'er-flow; 'Tis grace has kept me to this

Who all my sor-rows took. Saved by grace a-lone!
day, And will not let me go.

This is all my plea;
